Meeting Regarding Purchase of Rural Lines Nov. 2nd

A meeting of those interested in telephones will be held in the Ingraham Hall at 8 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 2nd.

Jr. Bible Class Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Q. E. Hollenberg entertained members of their Sunday School class on Thursday evening, October 18. Officers were elected for the coming year as follows: President, Mr. J. P. Beagle; Vice-president, Mr. Mervin Norton; Secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Q. E. Hollenberg. The Look-Committee consists of: Mr. Mervin Norton, Mr. Raymond Brubaker, and Mrs. Russell Shultz, and the Social Committee of: Mrs. E. C. Bowman, Mrs. W. M. Burries and Mrs. Paul Irwin. It was decided that the class should be named and known hereafter as the Junior Bible Class. Plans were discussed for more interesting and effective class work. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. P. Beagle.

Here and There

What a practical newspaperman finds interesting on a cruise around the world in the Canadian Pacific flagship Empress of Britain can be counted upon to capture the imagination of stay-at-home. Last winter Alan Maurice Irwin, a Montreal writer, made the cruise. He saw interesting places, outstanding people and strange customs. So he sat down and wrote a book which is illustrated by photographs he made with his own camera, filled with amusing sidelights upon humanity. Now, under the comprehensive title "At Sea—Ship and Sailing Ways," the book is on Macmillan's fall list.

That United States' investor's capital would flow into Canada in an even greater volume is the prediction of John R. Hastie, of the Mutual Life of New York, who spoke in Chicago, speaking before the Life Underwriters Association of Toronto, at the Royal York Hotel recently.

Farmers Decide to Purchase Rural Telephone Lines

At a meeting held in the Ingraham Hall at Arrowwood, on Friday, October 19th, 1934, the telephone subscribers, by a unanimous vote, decided to form a company and buy the rural lines.

Mr. Munro, District Traffic Chief of the Alberta Government Telephones, described in detail the regulations governing the company and also the cost to each subscriber.

Questions were asked and taken care of satisfactorily. A vote was then put to the meeting to see whether the subscribers were in favor of forming and buying the lines. Carried.

A temporary President, a Secretary and six canvassers were appointed to start things going. It was suggested that subscribers be canvassed to take a share in the company. The following officers were elected: Troy, A. J.—President, Jacques, E. E.—Secretary.

Canvassers—
Steiner W. Rural 1
Leslie H. Rural 2
Robinson, N. J. Rural 3
Irwin, L. H. Rural 4 McGruid, R. B. Rural 5
Thorsen, A. N. Rural 6

The Telephone Department has divided the Arrowwood district into two groups, the East Group and the West Group. The East Group will be East of Arrowwood and the West Group West of Arrowwood.

For the benefit of those who could not attend the meeting the following is a summary of the plan:

WEST GROUP
1255 poles at 30c each $376.50 20350 lbs. wire at 1c - 203.50 $580.00
Telephones $7.50 each
Fee for Charter $5.00

Insulators, sideblocks, Anchors, etc., included in above. Rural existence from highway to farmer's houses would be assumed to be the property of the subscriber and will not be included in the sale.

Terms
One quarter cash and balance in one and two years.

There were formerly 50 subscribers in this area. Assuming that 40 could be secured to enter a company, the cost of the 40 telephones at $7.50 each would be $300, or a total cost including poles and wire of $880.00.

Attachment Charges
Attachment charges for the use of Department's poles on a basis of 40 subscribers (four circuits) 93 cents per subscriber per month in addition to the regular charge of 50 cents per month per subscriber for connection with.

Outstanding Accounts
In connection with outstanding accounts owing by existing and former subscribers, some arrangements will have to be made by each subscriber for settlement. If the account can be paid in cash in full a 35% premium will be allowed. If this cannot be done a minimum of 10% in cash on the account and a promissory note for the balance without interest, to be paid off in installments or at a certain due date, will be accepted.

EAST GROUP
380 Poles at 30c each - $114.00
10200 lbs. wire at 01c - 102.00 $216.00
Telephones 7.50 each
Fee for Charter $5.00

Insulators, sideblocks, anchors, etc., included in above. Run-offs to existence from highway to farmer's houses would be assumed to be the property of the subscriber and will not be included in the sale.

One quarter cash and balance in one and two years.

There were formerly 35 subscribers in the area. Assuming that 25 could be secured to enter a company, the cost of the 25 telephones at $7.50 each would be $187.50 or a total cost including poles and wire of $403.50.

Attachment charges for the use of Department's poles on a basis of 25 subscribers (two circuits) 12c per subscriber per month in addition to the regular charge of 50c per month per subscriber for connection with.

Outstanding Accounts
In connection with outstanding accounts owing by existing and former subscribers, some arrangements will have to be made by each subscriber for settlement. If the account can be paid in cash in full a 35% premium will be allowed. If this cannot be done a minimum of 10% in cash on the account and a promissory note for the balance without interest, to be paid off in installments or at a certain due date, will be accepted.

In addition four load ringing gongs at $5 each are to be charged to four subscribers.

Brethren Church Notes
It was our good fortune to have Rev. G. C. Long of Irricana as the speaker last Sunday morning.

Next Lord's Day the pastor intends to use the theme announced for last Sunday, "Marriage, a Divine Ordinance." Sermon by the Pastor Sunday evening also.

The Lord's Supper will be commemorated Saturday evening, Nov. 10. Sunday, Nov. 11, Armistice Day, will be observed by an all day meeting. A basket dinner will be enjoyed at noon.

The Bible School will begin on Nov. 5. This will offer a fine opportunity to the people of this community to become better acquainted with the Word of God. Time spent in Bible study is profitably spent.

A Home Bible study course is prepared for those who cannot be in attendance at classes but are willing to use their spare time profitably. This is a general survey of the Old Testament. It will begin early in Nov and continue about sixteen weeks.

There are many people who should avail themselves of one of these means of biblical profit.

The grain growers of Alberta can do a great deal in the way of self-patronizing Alberta Pool elevators. The proper ownership of grain handling facilities is with the grain growers themselves.

Aberta Pool Elevators

The Captain and the crew, the ship's Doctor, and more particularly the kindly, motherly stewardesses of the Canadian Pacific liner Montclare all shared the responsibility of personally conducting the recent trans-Atlantic journey of Mary Estella Barr of Halifax. Mary Estella has six months of very active life behind her, and the best wishes of the Montclare's personnel for many happy years to come. The journey was necessary because Mary Estella is motherless, and her father, Peter Barr of Halifax, though unwilling to part with his baby daughter, yielded to the wishes of his parents in Leith, Scotland, to send the baby to them. Her grandparents met her at Glasgow.

The Rivals at Queenstown, Friday, Nov. 2nd

"The Rivals will be played at Queenstown on Friday, Nov. 2 at 8 p.m. This delightful play of Sheridan's is placed in the period of 1775. Mrs. Malaprop, who so ingeniously misuses large words, and Bob Acres, who gets himself tangled into a duel are well-known characters to every student of literature, and the other characters are scarcely less well known. Costumes and mannerisms of the period will be a feature of the play. Following is a cast of characters:

Sir Anthony Absolute	.....	Ralph Macomber
Capt. Jack Absolute	.....	Jesse Labd
Sir Lucius O'Trigger	.....	Jerry Wigston
Fig (Capt. Absolute's Servant)	.....	Frank Durston
Bob Acres	.....	James Rubbelke
Thomas	.....	Jerry Wigston
Faulkland	.....	Donald Glenmums
David (Ace's Servant)	.....	Reginald Campbell
Lucy (Lydia's Maid)	.....	Margaret Rubbelke
Lydia (Mrs. Malaprop's Neice)	.....	Margaret Wilson
Mrs. Malaprop	.....	Agnes Rubbelke
Julia (Lydia's Cousin)	.....	Manie Ferguson

Following the plays a dance, sponsored by Local Chautauques, will be held. Music by Prates Orchestra. Admission to dance (not covered by season ticket) Gents 50c.

ENTWISTLED

"You've fallen heir to a half-share in plenty of trouble," the lawyer told Gerald Keene. "The Broken Spur has been systematically looting the ranch, and all you Joe Carr, your partner, is drinking himself into a stupor."

But Keene decided to go see what was happening for himself—and he found Gerald Keene, half owner of the Horse-Glass Ranch, but as Duro Rios, tenderfoot in Montgomery.
Hard-winded outfit.

Dad Kane, desert vet and luckless prospector till now, is returning to tell Dustin and Spiker Goddard, owners of the Broken Spur ranch, who had grubstaked him, of his discovery of a rich gold mine, and some samples of the ore. He sees Broken Spur men rustling Housglass cattle and protests against it.

(Now Go On With The Story)

CHAPTER III.—Continued

This time Spiker scoffed openly. "It was no secret on any ranch in Seco Valley that Edith Carr, the red-headed, fiery-tempered daughter of the old owner of the Horse-glass, did exactly as she chose. So did her father. . . in most things for she dominated even the dour old man whom most men feared. Edith was not red-headed for nothing and she had discovered it once to his sorrow." When he and Spiker had first bought up the loose scrip that gave them title to the Broken Spur, he had vaguely noted the red-headed, unformed schoolgirl who occasionally went to the infrequent Valley dance.

Then five years passed; she became the rage and he was suddenly aware that the unforgotten girl had developed almost overnight into the perfectly formed woman whom men openly coveted.

It was a full two years since Dustin saw her when his eyes were opened. She was coming out of the office in Seco and he, about to enter, stood as though paralyzed at sight of her. Her gray eyes stared at him unseeing and her bright head was upturned as she passed and a couple of "dry farmers" giggled.
Dustin flushed. He did not know person who he cared had known that for that morning old Joe Carr had commented on his known conduct at a Mexican dance and on a household that he maintained in Seco. Dustin raised his hat and stepped up to her.

"Aren't you going to say 'Good morning'?" he asked quietly.
"To you? Why?" Edith stopped and looked at him as one might look: at a manny dog and that looked burned even Sam Dustin.
"I'd like to walk the street with you," he suggested.

The loafers at the office-door did not hear his words but they saw him drop into step with her and they judged each other. Then they saw her stop and draw herself up. There was no mistaking her words. They came with the whir and snap of a whip-lash.

"The street is open to the public, I believe," she said. "When I walk with any one it will not be with a woman man."

That was all. Dustin, the big man of the Broken Spur, dropped back.

His face was white with wrath and his lips were set. The men who saw it all never said a word about it till they got safely home but after that word spread. They outdone him smash his horse from the tie-rack and they preserved the silence of the damned till his horse was swallowed up in a dust-wraith. Then:
"She sure set fire to his shirt-tail," quoth old Styles. The other giggled uncomfortably. They knew Dustin fairly well.

Sam Dustin neither forgave nor forgot that incident and more than once he had planned revenge but to opportunity came his way. That one hot encounter marked Edith Carr as the only person in the Valley worth the time and patience to tame her and Dustin swore to himself that tamed she should some day be. Some day he would bring her to heel.

He had some enough not to try to force his attentions on her. He knew old Joe Carr too well for that for the man was one of the old breed that held their women-folk across-street.
The man must be better than ordinary to get his legs under old Joe Carr's table where the pretty Edith held sway. That was also the beginning of trouble for the Hous-glass ranch.

It was a big ranch. For miles its wire hung up into the hills and its broad ranges pastured many cattle.
But had luck dogged old Joe Carr narrow heels. First beef dropped to nine dollars! Then to six. . . !
Then a bucking post in the corral and broke his leg in two places. The broke healed imperfectly. It had to be salvaged twice and the corral the irritation over being a cripple when every man was urgently needed, awoke the old fever that had never really left him. He was a man who was laid away in the little burying-ground under the great almos. . . cotton-woods. . .
From day to day Edith tried desperately to stop that solitary drinking.
She saw her father go into his office after supper; she saw the door close and she knew only too well what was taking place behind that closed door.
Twice she tried to force an entry but each time she was repelled and the door was locked. Sick at heart, for she knew what the trouble was, she went to old Frank Crewe, the foreman.

"Is there no way to make him stop?" she sobbed. "Oh, Frank!
You know what it means! He's too good a man to go wrong at a time like this."

Crewe nodded. "He's too good a man to run off the straight at all," he said. "I've bused his bottles till the back-coral looks like a bankrupt glass foundry, Miss Edith, but I'll be burned if I can make him see sense.
The size of the matter is that he's just plumb worryin' himself into his bed and he's drinkin' to keep out of Darn him! He ought to know better with times like these are those two men Dustin and Goddard over at the Broken Spur, are just settin' up at night waitin' for a chance at him.
If he ain't darned careful they'll get it too."

"They did get their chance and they know well how to take advantage when it came their way. They both knew what was taking place at the Housglass. A drinking bout means a careless bunk-house and any ranchman knows what that means.
It spells disaster."

The result was not quick-moving.
It came with the slow growth of an avalanche. That moves very slowly at first till sheer weight overcomes inertia. Then it becomes suddenly dangerous. That first slow danger showed first in a slight lessening of the number of calves branded. . .
Then a long line of fence broke down and one discovered it till too late.
Cattle strayed off the home ranges and if they calved at all, brought forth their young in hidden places where no one discovered them till too late. Then a few calves with tilted tongues. That told its own story to range-bred men. . . Calves whose tongues were all to keep them from sucking their own dams.
Then followed a gradual drop in the grade of the stock. . . Any one could see it! And finally the open legal range over Soda Springs.
High Heaven alone knew why those poles were called Soda Springs.
There were three of them; great jets of clear cold water leaping from the wall of the upper valley and forming a deep pool at the end of the canon. In that great pool watercress grew rankly and cattle stood knee-deep in the water under the great trees. Soda Springs was a constant supply even in the long Dry Season when no rains fell. To the sick and injured Joe Carr the news came like a thunderclap that Dustin and Goddard had brought suit over the validity of his own claim to the ownership of those springs. No one had ever thought to question his ownership be-could never have thought of it but for a word from a drunken "Nester" from whom he and Spiker bought the "scrip" that gave them a questionable title to the Broken Spur. No one had ever been refused water-rights there in time of need. The Springs might as well have been on the Open Range.

But the days of the Open Range had passed and along with them went the old-time spirit of freemasonry that made all men free of water and grass at need. It remained for the Barnard to force old Joe Carr to defend his title to those Springs by fencing them and barring them to the public. It made him none too popular. Where old Joe had once been the Nester of the cattle men in Seco Valley, he was likely to become the Therapist, thanks to the machinations of Dustin and Goddard. He knew he couldn't do it. He knew that drink added to the spirit of aggression always. Dustin and Goddard were making him unpopular where he had once been a favorite, but he could not give way. Finally, dour, silent because he had none to talk to, bitter with hate and wrath at his own inability to keep abreast of the times, he saw his ranch slipping into the cattle depression. It did not improve his temper to note the success of the Broken Spur.

St. Paul's Cathedral

Saving Edifice From Encroachments Of Modern Commercialism

Considerable progress has been made during recent weeks with a scheme for surrounding St. Paul's Cathedral with a "sacred area" within which no deep excavations would be allowed which might endanger the shallow foundations of the building.

Such a scheme was first proposed in 1912, but nothing much was done on behalf of the Cathedral authorities
on behalf of the cathedral authorities, sent a letter to the Lord Mayor inviting the corporation to help in protecting the cathedral.

The matter was referred to a special committee of the corporation, and they have been helped by a report on the subsoil and foundations of the cathedral, drawn up after an extensive investigation, by Sir Alexander Gibb and Mr. Ralph Freeman.
The report was accompanied by a model showing the underground condition of the city from Bouverie Street (a turning off Fleet Street) to the Bank of England.

The special committee have recently been drafting a Bill in which it is hoped parliament will establish the "sacred area." Though the details of the bill are not yet available, it is expected that it will be submitted to the House of Commons in November and become law next spring.

The editor of the journal of the Cathedral Institute remarks that the "acceptance of this scheme, for which Canon Alexander has striven for many years, is of significance not only in the specific protection afforded to St. Paul's Cathedral, but because it marks the establishment of the principle that a great work should be protected, if necessary by Act of Parliament, from the encroachment of modern commercialism."

A New Name

To Rebuild Devastated City With Modern Structures

A "new Name," with wider altars a new business district and new structures, will arise from the $3,000, 000 fire disaster through plans completed by the Fire relief committee. Their work shows a complete new plan for the business district with streets to be 90 feet wide. Work from the beach of the Berling sea about 50 feet further than its previous location.

IT'S LIVER THAT MAKES YOU FEEL SO WRETCHED

Wake up your Liver

For you to feel healthy and happy, your liver must keep two pounds of bile flowing through your system. If it doesn't, you'll feel wretched. Bile is the body's great waste-eliminator.
Now you can get your liver to work like this completely with more powerful action, the natural way, instantly, safely, and without cost. LEE'S LIVER PILLS, the famous LEE'S LIVER PILLS, are the only pills that can do this.
Get them by mail. Send no money.
Write for free literature. Add five cents for postage. Address: LEE'S LIVER PILLS, 100 N. 1st St., St. Paul, Minn.

Babies and radios would make less noise if only people would let them alone.

Ogden's

As Ogden's Does

And Ogden's Fine Cut certainly does what any man who "tells his own" cigarettes wants his favorite tobacco to do. Its coolness leads to the final satisfying puff of every cigarette.

You'll find this cigarette tobacco easier to roll, cooler, milder, more luscious—better by far!

Ogden's Fine Cut and "Chanticleer" or "Vagabond" papers are a combination you just can't beat.

P.S.—At any Place Head Premium Store, or by mail, you can have a new box of "Vagabond" cigarettes. The box is valuable for its complete set of cigarettes.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Murray and family are moving into the Wm. Marshall place for the winter so as to enable Mr. Murray to prepare his own buildings on the Hudson Bay land.

Mr. Hirst Goldthorpe is preying to thresh again after the long spell of unsettled weather. He has most of his crop to thresh yet. We are hoping for a long spell of Indian summer, but you never can tell what it is in store for us.

Mrs. Frank McNeely is staying at Mrs. Speers' Nursing Home, Vulcan, where she is taking treatment for her heart. She is doing as well as can be expected.

We notice Dwight Richards driving a Dodge car. This is a sign that prosperity has turned the corner.

Mr. Wm. Marshall and family are planning on going to Portland for the winter.

Milo Notes

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ferngrin are leaving town for the winter. Harold Tammander has taken over the meat and fruit market.

Mr. J. Martin is moving his family into the Ferngrin residence.

Mrs. Joplin of Champion accompanied by Miss Betty Joplin is visiting with her daughter Mrs. N. St. Peter.

Friends of Mrs. D. Johnson will be glad to know that she is recovering from a bad attack of Flu.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Brinker and family were visitors in Calgary on Saturday.

Mr. P. H. Coleman and daughter Patricia spent the week-end in Calgary.

Baptist Church services every Sunday at 11 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Coleman will take up residence in Arrowwood Nov. 1. Mrs. Coleman will visit Milo every Thursday. All pupils kindly take note and arrange to be in Milo on that day or evening.

Communications

We are wondering why the main road to Mossleigh is left in such a bad condition. Out as far as the Dinton Township line it has not been dragged for months and is the worst road in this community. It is the only road that receives no attention and yet it is the most traveled road that leads into Arrowwood.

For Health... BEER IS BEST

THE GOOD DRINK BREWED FROM BARLEY-MALT

The finest grades of barley are known as 'malting quality' and the choicest of all 'malting quality' is reserved for BEER.

That is why you get the full benefit of that sovereign digestive... MALT... when you drink BEER.

There are no better beers than those made in Alberta.
